Ted Turner

R.E. (Ted) Turner, Chairman, President and CEO of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc., the owner of the Atlanta Braves, has established a reputation as an innovative businessman and sportsman.

He has combined his enthusiasm for communications and sports to expand a small UHF television station into the most watched single channel in the United States. WTBS, Channel 17 in Atlanta, is known as TBS SuperStation to cable viewers throughout the country. At the same time, primarily because of their exposure on the station, the Braves have followers in all 50 states and the Dominican Republic.

The dynamic Turner became owner of the Braves on Jan. 14, 1976, when National League owners unanimously approved the sale by Atlanta-LaSalle Corporation.

Turner Communications Corporation, now called Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.

Under Turner's leadership, the Braves emerged into a club which won the National League West title for the first time in 13 years in 1982. Recently the Braves have concentrated more than ever on developing Major League players through their farm system and now have the most extensive minor league and scouting programs in baseball. The Braves also are not afraid to better themselves by other methods, as evidenced by their signing of free agent Nick Esasky and trading for Charlie Leibrandt, Ernie Whitt and Jim Presley during the past off season.

Turner has become a household word in the world of sports not only through his ownership of the Braves and basketball Hawks, but also because of his considerable achievements as a yachtsman.

Turner's most notable deed as a yachting participant came in 1977 when he skippered "Courageous" to victory in the prestigious America's Cup races. He was named Yachtsman of the Year for the third time by the New York Yacht Club on the strength of those wins. He also won the award a fourth time, in 1978.

In 1986, Turner created the Goodwill Games, a world-class, international multi-sport event that is held every four years. The first Goodwill Games, held in Moscow in July, represented the first time U.S. and Soviet athletes had come together in a major, international summer competition since the 1976 Montreal Olympics. The games will be held again this summer in Seattle.

Turner has almost revolutionized the television industry. TBS SuperStation now reaches 52.5 million homes in all 50 states, Puerto Rico and other Caribbean islands. On June 1, 1980, Turner started Cable News Network, the first 24-hour, all-news television station. CNN reaches 54 million homes across the nation and is available to viewers worldwide. A third Turner broadcasting system, HEADLINE NEWS, made its debut on Jan. 1, 1982. HEADLINE NEWS is a national, 24-hour, fast-paced news network operating in 30-minute cycles which reaches into 41 million homes throughout the U.S.

Another of Turner's major contributions to the cable industry was the launch of Turner Network Television (TNT) in October of 1988. TNT, which already reaches 38 homes in the United States, is designed to compete with the three broadcast networks by offering a combination of original programming, major sporting events and vintage films and television series from the Turner Entertainment Co. Library.

Early in 1986, Turner negotiated the purchase of the MGM-United Artists communications giant, retaining the voluminous MGM film library to enhance WTBS' programming.

Turner's commitment to using television for the public good can be seen in his work as one of the founding board members of the Better World Society. Created in 1985, the Society is dedicated to the production and international distribution of television programs on critical issues that threaten the planet: nuclear arms, overpopulation and environmental degradation.

Turner was born in Cincinnati on Nov. 19, 1938. He attended Brown University where he was Vice-President of the Debating Union and Commodore of the Brown Yacht Club.

He began his business career as an account executive for Turner Advertising Company in Savannah, Ga. He became general manager of Turner Advertising in Macon, Ga., in 1960, at the age of 22, and in 1963, became president and chief executive officer of the various Turner companies with offices in Atlanta.

In 1970 Turner Communications Corporation merged with Rice Broadcasting, with Turner becoming general manager of the flagship station, WTCG (later changed to WTBS) in Atlanta. The Federal Communications Commission approved use of a satellite system in 1976 which allowed Turner Communications to beam WTBS's signal across the United States.

Turner is a member of the Atlanta Advertising Club, the Atlanta Yacht Club, and the Capital City Club.

Bill Bartholomay

Chairman of the Board

Bill Bartholomay, a lifelong baseball fan of the first order, has been Chairman of the Board of the Atlanta Braves since 1966. He has been involved with the team as a director or owner for 29 years. He led a group which purchased the then Milwaukee Braves in November of 1962 and moved the team to Atlanta in 1966. Prior to his involvement with the Braves, Bartholomay was a director and shareholder of the Chicago White Sox.

Bartholomay was elected to the Commissioner's Executive Council in December of 1989, becoming the first representative of the Atlanta Braves to serve on that group. The committee, consisting of the league presidents and four owners from each league, is Fay Vincent's top advisory board. A past member of the National League Executive Committee, Bartholomay still serves as a trustee of the Major League Baseball Players benefit plan, and was a member of the committee which recommended Bill White as National League President in the spring of 1989.

Bartholomay won friends for the Braves all over the sports world when in 1968 he signed Satchel Paige, then in his 60s, so he could accumulate enough time to qualify for his pension. Paige is the oldest player ever to sign a major league contract.

Although best known for his sports leadership, Bartholomay wears many other hats in the business world. He is Vice Chairman of the Board of Frank B. Hall & Co. Inc., one of the world's largest international insurance brokerage firms, Vice Chairman of the Board of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. and the President of the Chicago Park District Board of Commissioners. He also serves as a director or trustee of many other corporations and civic organizations, including the National Security Bank of Chicago, the Lincoln Park Zoological Society and the Harold Washington Foundation.

Stan Kasten

President

Stan Kasten begins his fourth season as the Braves' President and TBS Vice President for Sports Teams in 1990.

Kasten, 38, probably has more high level sports administration experience than anyone else his age in the country. When he assumed his current duties on Nov. 6, 1990, he simply assumed additional responsibilities for owner Ted Turner. As the Atlanta Hawks' President and General Manager, Kasten had already established himself as one of the top executives in the National Basketball Association. He was selected by his peers as the NBA Executive-of-the-Year for the second straight time after the 1986-87 season. With Kasten in the front office, the Hawks had participated in the NBA playoffs 10 of the last 12 seasons going into the 1988-89 campaign.

Kasten's association with Turner goes back more than a decade. They met at a Braves-Cardinals game in 1976 in St. Louis, when Kasten was celebrating his graduation from law school with a tour of Major League baseball parks. He soon was appointed in-house legal counsel for the Hawks and the Braves and served as the Hawks' Assistant General Manager for two years before becoming, at 27, the youngest General Manager in NBA history in November of 1979. He was named the Hawks' President in April of 1986.

Kasten is a member of the Hawks' Board of Directors, a member of the NBA Board of Governors and a trustee of the Basketball Hall of Fame. He speaks regularly to legal associations throughout the country and is on the Board of Directors of the National Sports Lawyers Association. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Richard Allen Outreach Center, a crisis hot-line service. During his NBA years, Kasten has also served on the NBA's Marketing Committee, the Player Pension Committee and the Expansion Committee.

Kasten was born February 1, 1952, in Lakewood, New Jersey, but grew up in the Freehold, New Jersey, area that also produced Bruce Springsteen. One of three children, Stan attended private secondary school in Baltimore and New York City. He began his college career at Rutgers but transferred to New York University. He graduated from NYU with a degree in Psychology, earned Magna Cum Laude honors and was chosen Phi Beta Kappa. He received a Juris Doctor degree from Columbia Law School and played outfield in the Jersey Shore Summer Baseball League during his law school years.

Stan, his wife, Helen, and their four children (Alana, Corey, Sherry and Jay) live in Sandy Springs. Prior to coming to the Braves, Kasten played softball in several leagues in Atlanta during basketball's off season, and still competes in a fast-pitch, over-30 baseball league. He is an admitted television addict and loves Italian food.

Henry Aaron

Senior Vice President/ Assistant to the President

Hank Aaron, an Atlanta Braves' Vice President and Director of Player Development for the previous 13 years, was promoted to Senior Vice President and Assistant to the President in December of 1989.

Aaron works closely with President Stan Kasten and General Manager Bobby Cox in overseeing all phases of the Braves' baseball operations, including the major league franchise, minor league system and scouting. Aaron also will direct the team's personal development program for players and will continue to represent the Braves in community relations activities.

Aaron, the greatest home run hitter of all time, was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January of 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Only Willie Mays, who got 409 votes in 1979, received more votes in the annual election, and only Ty Cobb, who received 98.2 per cent of the votes in the first balloting in 1936, earned a higher percentage. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on Aug. 1, 1982.

Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office October 7, 1976. He oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship. Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back N.L. MVP awards in 1982-83, Tom Glavine, Mark Lemke and Andres Thomas are just a few players who came up through Atlanta's farm system under Aaron's direction.

In his 23-year major league career, Aaron rewrote baseball's hitting record book. He holds more major league batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are some truly amazing ones, including Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime, 2,297; Most Long Hits, Lifetime, 1,477; Most Total Bases, 6,856; and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime, 755. His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before 53,775 against the Dodgers' Al Downing. He also ranks second on the all-time list in At-Bats (12,364) and Runs (2,174), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), seventh in years of service (23), eighth in doubles (624) and 11th in singles (2,294).

On May 17, 1970, Hank became the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He is one of eight players to ever hit more than 30 homers and steal more than 30 bases in a season, doing it in 1963. Hank played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by The Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to the Milwaukee Brewers for outfielder Dave May and minor league pitcher Roger at the end of the 1974 season. Aaron retired as a player two years later.

Aaron and his wife, the former Billye Suber, live in Atlanta. They have five children, Gail, Hank Jr., Lary, Dorinda and Ceci. Lary was a minor league outfielder for the Braves.

BRAVES BITS

DID YOU KNOW ... The Braves' pitching staff set an Atlanta season record with 966 strikeouts in 1989, breaking the old mark of 960 set in 1970.

Bobby Cox

General Manager

Bobby Cox, entering his fifth season as the Atlanta Braves' general manager, is the man most responsible for shaping the team's operating philosophy. The Braves' farm system, having been stockpiled with talented prospects through the draft and trades by Cox and his staff, is regarded as one of the best in baseball. The goal is long-term, consistent success.

When Cox joined the Braves' front office in October of 1985, he ended a 25-year, on-the-field career as player, coach and manager, including a stint as Atlanta's manager from 1978 through 1981. He returned to Atlanta from Toronto, where he had just completed four years as the Blue Jays' manager.

While with the Blue Jays, Cox took an habitual seventh-place team to within one game of attaining a berth in the 1985 World Series. Toronto lost game No. 7 of the American League Championship Series to the eventual World Champion Kansas City Royals. For his efforts that year, Cox was named The Sporting News Major League Manager of the Year by a vote of his peers. He was awarded a similar honor by the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Cox's early baseball credentials also are impressive. After 10 years as a player in the minors and two in the majors, Cox was named manager of the New York Yankees' Class A affiliate in Fort Lauderdale in 1971. His teams never finished lower than fourth in his six years in the Yankee system. He won the Eastern League pennant and championship with West Haven in 1972. Cox also placed second twice and third twice in four years with Syracuse, winning the International League's Governor's Cup in 1976.

After serving as the Yankees' first base coach in 1977, Cox moved South to manage the Braves. He compiled a 266-323 record in his four years in Atlanta, laying the groundwork for the team's success in 1982, when the Braves won the National League West title. He received numerous votes for N.L. Manager of the Year in 1980, when Atlanta was 81-80, its best record in six seasons.

In 1982, his first year in Toronto, he led the Blue Jays to a 78-84 mark, the best record in their six-year history. Toronto improved to 89-73 the next two seasons, then won the A.L. East in 1985 by going 99-62.

Cox received a reported $40,000 bonus to sign with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1959. He won the Pioneer League batting championship while with Great Falls in 1963, batting .337 with 19 home runs and 85 RBI... He led his league in fielding percentage on three occasions (1961 as a second baseman, 1963 and 1965 as a third baseman)... He spent seven years in the Dodgers' system before being acquired by Atlanta in 1966. He was traded following the 1967 season to the New York Yankees and beat out Mike Ferraro, the Yankees' outstanding rookie in spring training, for the third base job in 1968. He batted .229 that year to make the Topps Rookie All-Star team. He lost his job to roommate Bobby Murcer in 1969... Cox was forced to retire at the age of 30 due to bad knees.

Bobby was born May 21, 1941, at Tulsa, Oklahoma. He graduated from Selma High School (Selma, Ca.) in 1959 and attended Reedley Junior College (Reedley, Ca.). He grew up in Selma, a farming community 15 miles south of Fresno, midway between San Francisco and Los Angeles... Cox and his wife, Pam, have three daughters, Keisha (20), Kami (17) and Skyla (8)... The family resides in Marietta, GA.

John Mullen

Assistant General Manager

The 1990 season will mark John Mullen's 31st year of service in the Braves' franchise. He originally began working for the Braves in 1947 in Boston, remaining with the team until 1966. Then after a 13-year absence when he worked for the Houston Astros, Mullen returned to the franchise in 1979. In this, his 12th consecutive season with the club, he serves as the team's Assistant General Manager. In that role he aids General Manager Bobby Cox in contract negotiations and helps him through the complicated set of rules and paperwork requirements developed in baseball's collective bargaining processes through the years.

Mullen's career in baseball began with the Braves' organization some 43 years ago when it was based in Boston. In fact, Mullen is the only current member of the organization who has served the Braves when the club was based in Boston, Milwaukee and Atlanta. Mullen's original tenure with the Braves began in January 1947 after having taken a part-time position the previous month. He was Assistant Farm Director until May, 1953, when he became Farm Director for the franchise, which had vacated Boston for Milwaukee. During his years as Farm Director until 1966, Mullen is credited with having signed many Braves players who developed into World Champions in 1957, National League pennant winners in 1958, and division winners in 1969. Some of the players signed under his direction include Hank Aaron, Eddie Mathews (both Hall of Famers), Phil Niekro, Johnny Logan, Del Crandall, Lee Maye and Mike Lum.

Mullen left the Braves in September of 1966, when he went to work for the Houston Astros as Assistant to Director of Player Personnel and Manager Grady Hatton. At mid-season, he became the Assistant to the General Manager, the position he held until returning to the Braves in 1979. He returned as the club's General Manager, a post vacant because of the death of Bill Lucas, and a title he held through the 1985 season.

Since 1979, Mullen has helped maintain the Braves' philosophy of emphasizing a strong minor league organization. This is a philosophy that has been adhered to since his primary years with the Braves. "Baseball has changed greatly because of escalating salaries and long term no-trade contracts," Mullen says. "But signing and developing your own players is still the best avenue for success. Trading should be an adjunct to that." Nevertheless, Mullen orchestrated player movements which helped to make the Braves the N.L. West division winners in 1982 and has been involved in the decision-making in other Braves' trades throughout the years.

Mullen's baseball background gives him years of experience in analyzing talent. In previous years with the Braves he oversaw the signing and development of players who worked their way up to the major leagues. While with Houston, Mullen spent most of his time scouting players in the American and National Leagues with the purpose of judging major league talent to assist in trading.

Mullen served four years in the U.S. Coast Guard during World War II. He and his wife Clair have a daughter, Kathleen, and two sons, Christopher and Richard. In his leisure time, John is a noted tenor.

Bobby Dews

Director of Player Development

Bobby Dews, who for the previous two seasons had been the Braves' assistant director of player development, was named the team's Director of Player Development in December of 1989.

Dews, 51, succeeded Hank Aaron, who was promoted to a Braves senior vice president and assistant to the president.

Dews has been with the Braves as a manager, coach, instructor or administrator since 1975, when he was named manager of Class A Greenwood of the Western Carolinas League. He spent eight of the next 11 years managing in Atlanta's farm system and guided four of his teams to their respective playoffs. The AA Savannah Braves, who won the Southern League Eastern Division championship in 1978, earned Dews manager-of-the-year honors.

Dews was a coach with the major league Braves from 1979 through 1981 and again in 1985. He served as a roving minor league instructor in 1986 and 1987 and at the end of that year was named assistant director of player development.

A shortstop in the St. Louis Cardinals' organization from 1960 through part of 1970, Dews advanced as high as AAA. His best year was 1964, when he hit .277 with 40 RBI for Tulsa of the AA Texas League. He started his managerial career with the Cardinals' Lewiston club of the Northwest League in 1969.

A native of Clinton, Iowa, Dews graduated from Edison (Ga.) High School and attended Georgia Tech. He was an outstanding baseball and basketball player there, being selected the Southeastern Conference's basketball defensive player-of-the-year in 1960.

Dews and his wife, the former Glenda Bolin, live in Albany, Ga. They have one daughter, Dana.

Russ Nixon #2

OPENING DAY AGE: 55

BORN: February 19, 1935, at Cleves, OH

RESIDES: Covington, GA

Russ Nixon, entering his second full season as the Atlanta Braves' manager, has spent two-thirds of his life in professional baseball. Thirty-seven years as a player, coach and manager have prepared him for virtually every conceivable situation.

Nixon, who turned 55 Feb. 19, coaxed nine more wins out of the Braves last season than in 1988 (63-97 compared to 54-106). This year he hopes better talent will lead to an even greater improvement.

Nixon began 1988 managing the Braves' farm club at Greenville (SC) in the AA Southern League and had that team tied for first place in the East Division when he moved up to Atlanta on May 22. In 1986 and 1987 he had served as Atlanta's third base coach.

Nixon managed in the Cincinnati Reds' farm system from 1970 through 1975, compiling a winning record in the last five of those years with Tampa of the Florida State League. The Tarpons won a divisional title in 1974 and finished second on three other occasions. Overall, his six-year record was 382-365 (.511).

Nixon joined Cincinnati's Major League club as a coach in 1976, the year the Reds repeated as World Champions by sweeping the New York Yankees in the World Series. The following years, the Reds finished first, second twice and third in the National League West.

After Nixon replaced John McNamara as Cincinnati's manager in July of 1982, the team went 91-131 (27-43 the rest of '82) in the next one and one-half seasons. The 1983 Reds wound up 74-88, a 13-game improvement over 1982, which tied them for the best upgrade in the majors. He helped develop such young players as Ted Power, John Franco and current Brave Nick Esasky.

Let go by Cincinnati after the 1983 season, Nixon coached at Montreal in 1984 and 1985.

Selected the national player-of-the-year in American Legion baseball in 1951, Nixon was signed as a free agent by the Cleveland Indians in 1953. He began his professional career with Green Bay that year. A catcher, he led the Florida State League with a .387 batting average for Jacksonville Beach in 1954, still the league's best mark for a rookie. He topped the Three I League with a .385 batting average for Keokuk in 1955. Nixon made it to the majors with the Indians in 1957, recording a .268 batting average in 906 games over a 12-year career with Cleveland, Boston and Minnesota. His best season was with Cleveland in 1958, when he hit .301 with 9 home runs and 46 RBI in 376 at-bats.

Nixon, a graduate of Cincinnati's Western Hills High School (the same school which produced Pete Rose, Jim Frey and Don Zimmer), attended the University of Cincinnati. Nixon's twin brother, Roy, was a first baseman in the Indians' organization from 1953 through 1957.

Nixon, and his wife, the former Glenda Carder, moved into a new home in Covington in February of 1989. They have four children: Rebel, Christopher, Misty and Samantha.

Bruce Dal Canton #39

POSITION: Coach
HT: 6'2" WT: 208
OPENING DAY AGE: 47
BORN: June 15, 1942, at California, PA
RESIDES: Carnegie, PA

Charged with overseeing the development of the young arms on the Braves' staff is pitching coach Bruce Dal Canton. Now in his fourth season as Atlanta's pitching coach, Dal Canton has been a fixture in the organization since 1982, when he joined the Braves as a minor league pitching instructor. He then served as pitching coach at Savannah in 1983, Greenville in 1984, and Richmond in 1985 and 1986.

Over an 11-year major league career beginning in 1967, Dal Canton compiled a 51-49 log as a spot starter with the Pirates, Royals, Braves and White Sox. Primarily a reliever with Pittsburgh, Dal Canton went 20-8 for the Bucs between 1967 and 1970. He pitched over a year without a loss, recording a 7-0 mark from June 29, 1969 to July 20, 1970. With Kansas City, Dal Canton set a Royals' club record (later broken by Steve Busby in 1974) when he retired 23 consecutive batters against the Yankees on August 14, 1972.

Signed by the Braves after his release by Kansas City in 1975, Dal Canton pitched in Atlanta through 1976. The White Sox signed him as a free agent in April of 1977, and after his release in June of 1978, he served as the White Sox pitching coach the remainder of the season.

Dal Canton attended California State College (Pa.) and the University of West Virginia, earning a B.S. Degree in Education and a Master's Degree in Biology. Bruce and his wife, Helene, reside in Carnegie, Pa., in the off-season. His hobbies include golfing and reading sports books.

Nearly all the fans waited out a two-hour rain delay in the fourth.

Last starting pitcher to blank Dodgers over a full season was St. Louis' Larry Jaster, who threw 5 SHOs in 5 starts vs. LA in '66 ... Blanked Phillies on only 2 hits May 4; was the first 2-hitter by a Braves' hurler since Zane Smith stopped SF on April 19, '86 ... Was removed from the rotation with 3 weeks left in season, then underwent surgery Sept. 25 to have bone chips removed from his left ankle.

1989 SEASON: Leibbrandt's 5-11 mark in '89 ended a string of 5 consecutive winning seasons, which saw him leave his name in Kansas City's record books in numerous lifetime categories: T4th in starts with 187, 6th in wins with 76 and IP with 1257, 7th in SOs with 347, T7th in SHOs with 10, and 8th in CGs with 34 ... Pitched effectively in April (2-2, 2.72 ERA in 6 starts), but slumped thereafter, winning his final game at Chicago, 6-3, on June 30 ... Moved to bullpen in August, and posted a 1.64 ERA in 6 relief outings over remainder of season ... Blanked the Red Sox at Fenway Park, 10-0, going the distance in a 5-hit SHO on April 23 ... Besides winning 17 of 26 decisions, Leibbrandt compiled a 2.69 ERA, the 2nd-lowest in the AL, and the lowest among AL lefties ... Also set a single-season record for lowest ERA among KC southpaw starters (a record which still stands through 1989) ... His .654 winning percentage ranked 4th in junior circuit ... Strongest efforts came in April (3-0, 1.69 ERA) and Sept. (4-1, 0.91 ERA), becoming the only hurler in league to capture AL Pitcher of the Month honors twice ... Topped Royals' staff in playoffs and World Series with 31.2 IP and 16 Ks ... Came out of bullpen in Game 7 of ALCS, allowing only 2 ERs in 5.1 innings of middle relief, and was the winning pitcher in KC's 6-2 pennant clincher over Toronto ... In Game Two of World Series vs. St. Louis, he limited the Cards to 2 hits through 1st 8 innings, but saw Redbirds strike for 4 runs in 9th en route to a 4-2 win ... CONTRACT STATUS: Signed thru '90

ACQUIRED: Was the Braves' 1st selection (5th overall) in the 1974 June draft ... Re-signed as a free agent to a three-year contract November 4, 1987.

1989 SEASON: Season of extremes for Braves' team captain ... Low BA for 2nd straight season was combined with early production drought (no homers in 169 ABs over 43 games, May 3-June 23) ... Then displayed one of best power surges in his career, hitting 10 HRs in 22 games, July 19-Aug. 11 ... Of his last 9 homers in that stretch, 6 were 3-run blasts ... Had 9 hits from July 26-Aug. 11, with 8 of them going the distance ... During the 22-game period from July 19-Aug. 11, Murphy had 27 RBI ... Matched his single-game career high of 6 RBI on April 23, vs. SD, and July 27, vs. SF ... The latter game put the two-time MVP in the record books; in that contest, Murphy hit 2 HRs in the 6th inning of the Braves' 10-1 rout of SF (all 10 runs coming in the 6th), becoming the 23rd player to perform the trick ... He became the first Brave in modern times to hit 2 HRs in 1 inning (last Brave to do it was Robert Lowe in 1894) ... His 6 RBI in 1 inning, besides setting a franchise record, tied the M.L. record held by 9 other players ... Murphy also became only the 3rd player to hit 2 HRs and drive in as many as 6 runs in 1 inning ... His 2nd 2-HR game of the season came on Aug. 9, at LA ... Was the 31st multiple-HR game of his career, T29th on the all-time list ... Became the Atlanta Braves' all-time HR leader when he hit his 335th career homer on April 21 vs. SD, passing Hank Aaron ... Ended the season with 354 HRs, which tied him for 38th place on the all-time list with Lee May ... Played in his 1,796th career game on Aug. 19 vs. Pit, passing Rabbit Maranville into 3rd place on the Braves' all-time list ... Murphy, Eddie Murray and Dwight Evans were the only 3 players to hit 20 or more homers in a season 9 times during the 1980's ... Led the team in RBI for the 8th straight season, although he did not lead the squad in HRs for first time since 1981 ... Started season in CF, but moved back to right field on July 4 after the acquisition of Oddibe McDowell ... Hit .267 (16 x 60) vs. SD, with 6 HRs and 18 RBI; also had 18 RBI vs. SF, with 4 HRs.

Made brilliant start on April 15, at SF (8.0 IP, 3 H, 1 R, 0 ER, 1 BB, 13 K), yet still lost a 1-0 decision ... The 13 Ks were the most for a Braves' pitcher since Phil Niekro recorded 13 strikeouts on June 9, '77, vs. Pha ... Initial victory of season came on May 7 vs. Mtl (7.0 IP, 3 H, 0 R) ... After losing 11 of his first 13 decisions, Smith went 3-3 in last 7 appearances (1 ND), Aug. 9-Sept. 8 ... Pitched 2 scoreless innings in first M.L. relief appearance, July 23 at NY ... Did not allow a run in 25.0 IP vs. Cubs ... 195.1 total IP tied Smith with Tom Glavine for 2nd most on Braves behind Rick Mahler's 249.0.

1987—The 21-year-old former No. 1 pick of the Phillies made the jump from AA Greenville to the Major Leagues in '87 ... THE BRAVES IN THE WORLD SERIES

1914 — Boston 4 games, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' 'Miracle Braves,' who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the Series, with a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

1948 — Cleveland 4 games, Boston 2

The Braves under Billy Southworth won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost the Series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in the fifth game, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive homers off Feller.

1957 — Milwaukee 4 games, New York 3

Sensational Lou Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' tenth-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 — New York 4 games, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the classic. Hank Bauer led the Yanks with ten hits and eight runs batted in, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two and Lou Burdette one for the Braves.

THE BRAVES IN THE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

1969 — New York 3 games, Atlanta 0

Atlanta became the first Western Division champion by winning 76.9 per cent of its games in September, finishing the year with a 93-69 record. New York then swept the three-game Championship Series from the Braves. The Mets scored five runs in the eighth inning to take the first game in Atlanta, 9-5. The following day, six Atlanta pitchers failed to stop the Mets as New York won, 11-6. Then, in the final game on Oct. 6 at Shea Stadium, Wayne Garrett's two-run homer in the fifth finished the Braves' hopes, with the final score, 7-4.

1982 — St. Louis 3 games, Atlanta 0

First year manager Joe Torre got the Braves off to a major league record 13 consecutive wins at the start of the season en route to the club's first divisional title in 13 years. St. Louis swept the Braves in the Championship Series as Atlanta was outscored 17-5 in the three games. The Cardinals exploded for five runs in the sixth inning to take the first game at St. Louis, 7-0. In game two the Cardinals scored single runs in the eighth and ninth innings to gain the win. The Braves returned to Atlanta for game three but could fare no better as St. Louis quickly scored four runs in the second inning in a 6-2 win.

- 1965 — The Braves' move to Atlanta was halted by a court restraining order, forcing a lame duck season in Milwaukee. Again, the Braves showed power with 196 homers, including 32 each by Aaron and Mathews, but the team finished fifth..
- 1966 — The Braves and Pirates debuted major league baseball's first season in Atlanta on April 12, with Pittsburgh winning, 3-2 in 13 innings. Atlanta was fifth in its initial season, but Aaron hit 44 homers and had 127 RBIs to lead the league in those departments.
- 1967 — Aaron hit 39 homers to again lead the league, but the Braves fell to seventh in league standings.

Phil Niekro no-hit the Padres, winning 9-0. Lack of pitching plummeted the Braves to fifth in the standings.
- 1974 — Hank Aaron tied Babe Ruth the first time he swung the bat, connecting on April 4, 1974 off Cincinnati's Jack Billingham. - 1979 — Phil Niekro achieved his 200th career victory by beating the Pirates at Pittsburgh. Niekro won 21 games.

BRAVES' BEST START

In research dating back to 1900, Elias Sports Bureau found the following who got off to successful starts at the beginning of their season for the Braves:

Warren Spahn	8-0 in 1947, in 8 starts plus a no-decision in relief during that stretch.
Jim Wilson	8-0 in 1954, in 8 consecutive starts.
Ed Brandt	8-0 in 1931, in consecutive starts, all complete games.
Larry McWilliams	7-0 in 1978 for best Atlanta start. He was not called up from minors until July 17 so this streak was not at top of season but was a win streak that began the season for McWilliams.
Rick Mahler	7-0 in 1985, in 7 consecutive starts.
George Stone	6-0 in 1969, in 13 games with only 3 wins as a starter.
Pascual Perez	5-0 in 1983, in consecutive starts.
Tom Glavine	5-0 in 1989, in 7 starts.

1990 BRAVES' RADIO AND TELEVISION

The Atlanta Braves, WTBS-TV and WSB Radio join together again in 1990 to provide Braves' fans with the best in sports broadcasting. TBS SuperStation is televising 110 games in 1990, including 61 regular season home games, 48 regular season away games and one spring training game. WTBS carries the Braves into more than 52 million homes throughout the United States and the Caribbean.

WSB-AM, which began its affiliation with the Braves when the franchise moved to Atlanta in 1966, is the rightsholder for the team's radio network. The 100-plus outlets cover Alabama, Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina and Tennessee, in addition to Georgia. Braves radio will air all 162 regular season games.

The broadcasters are Skip Caray, Pete Van Wieren and Don Sutton.

SKIP CARAY

Skip Caray, a seven-time winner of the Georgia Broadcaster of the Year award, enters his 15th season with the Braves in 1990. Caray also did play-by-play for the Atlanta Hawks for 14 seasons, is a former radio sports talk show host, broadcast Florida State football for one year and currently does National Basketball Association games for WTBS.

Skip and his wife, Paula, live in Atlanta. They have four children: Chip (a play-by-play voice for the NBA's Orlando Magic), Cindy, Shayelyn and Joshua.

PETE VAN WIEREN

Pete Van Wieren, who has won Georgia Broadcaster of the Year honors for two straight years, is in his 15th season as one of the voices of the Braves. Van Wieren has now earned that prestigious award three times, the first having come in 1980. He began his Major League broadcasting career with the Braves in 1976 after working as a play-by-play man for the Tidewater Tides of the International League for two years. He has also broadcast hockey, college and professional basketball and college and professional football, currently spending his baseball off-seasons doing the NBA on WTBS.

Pete and his wife, Elaine, live in Tucker, Ga. They have two children: Steven and Jon.

DON SUTTON

Don Sutton joined the Braves' broadcast crew in 1989, after concluding a 23-year Major League career which saw him win 324 games and participate in four World Series and four All-Star games. As a broadcaster, he has done network coverage of both the playoffs and World Series, as well as filling in as a sportscaster on KNBC in Los Angeles. Last year he split time between TBS SuperStation and cablecasts of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Don and his wife, Patti, have two children: Daron and Staci.

RULES OF INTEREST

PLAYER LIMITS: 40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; divide the total by the number of innings pitched.

QUALIFYING MARKS: To qualify for the batting championship a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average Leadership a pitcher must have at least 162 innings pitched.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at bat (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

DETERMINING PERCENTAGE OF GAMES WON AND LOST: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

DETERMINING ON BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks, and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches, and sacrifice flies.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only, shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

DETERMINING A "MAJOR LEAGUE YEAR": 172 days constitute a full year in the Major Leagues.

THE GAME-WINNING RBI: The Game-Winning RBI is defined as "the RBI that gives a club the lead it never relinquishes." There does not have to be a Game-Winning RBI in every game because the winning run can be scored on a wild pitch, error, balk, etc.

RELIEF PITCHERS' SAVE RULE: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: 1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and, 2) he is not the winning pitcher, and, 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or, b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or, c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

ROOKIE RULE: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DAY GAME/NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a two-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

REGULATION GAME: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the first of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

TIE GAME: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the League standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

SUSPENDED GAME: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons; (1) a curfew imposed by law; (2) a time limit permissible under league rules; (3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment; or (4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under either provision (3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts. Note: weather and similar conditions shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the four reasons specified.

RULES OF INTEREST

Since 1980, if WEATHER forces the termination of a legal game while an INNING IS IN PROGRESS, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: (1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or, (2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground. . . . If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in American League Regulation 3.8.

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969. Formerly, the game would have been declared a tie and replayed in its entirety at a later date.

DISABLED LISTS: REGULAR DISABLED LIST: Maximum number of players on list at any one time—three (3). Minimum period of activity—twenty-one (21) days. Players may not be placed on the Regular Disabled List earlier than fifteen (15) days prior to the start of the Championship Season. SUPPLEMENTAL DISABLED LIST: Maximum number of players on list at one time—two (2) of which no more than one (1) may be a pitcher. Minimum period of inactivity fifteen (15) days. SPECIAL DISABLED LIST: Maximum number of players on list at any one time—one (1). Minimum period of inactivity—thirty (30) calendar days. Placements on this List are limited to Clubs who have two (2) players on the Supplemental Disabled List, and three (3) players on the Regular Disabled List, and subsequently incur an injury or ailment to a player whose estimated disability will exceed twenty-one (21) days, yet be less than sixty (60) days. EMERGENCY DISABLED LIST: Maximum number of players on list at one time—no limit. Minimum period of inactivity—sixty (60) calendar days. Players placed on this list after August 1st shall remain there for the balance of the season.

WAIVER RULES

Baseball's waiver year runs from November 10 to November 10 with three subdivisions: First Waiver Period—November 11–30th day of season; Second Waiver Period—31st day of season to July 31; Third Waiver Period—August 1–November 10.

To make a trade with any major league club, waivers are required only from August 1 until 5:00 P.M. EST on the day after the regular season ends. Waivers are not required the remainder of the year. In effect, the old June 15 trading deadline has been pushed back to July 31.

A player on waivers is offered to all other teams in reverse order of the standings. Waivers must be asked by 2:00 P.M. EST and expire at the same time after the waiver period ends. The claiming period has been reduced from six days to three days. There are no more individual league waivers, only major league waivers.

Unconditional Release Waivers can be asked at any time. Between September 1 to the 30th day after the opening of the next championship season, however, major league clubs must ask for Special Waivers before outrighting a player to a National Association team, thereby offering the player to all other teams for their major league rosters.

A player who has run out of options and has been outrighted may still be repurchased by the major league club and placed on its roster but cannot be sent down to the minor leagues again.

To compute which players need waivers before they may be optioned: if three years (less one for each previously spent on option) have elapsed since the player actually reported to the Major Leagues for the first time, waivers are required. The date of actual physical reporting will be used as the benchmark instead of the date the player was first placed on a club's 40-man roster.
